

Chobe River Lodge, Botswana

Ichingo Chobe River Lodge situated in the very north eastern region of Namibia and because of its location can be considered as a Chobe / Victoria Falls destination. Where the Chobe and Zambezi Rivers meet they form Impalila Island at the end of which four countries (Namibia, Botswana, Zambia and Zimbabwe) join together. Ichingo is on this island overlooking the Chobe River. The nearest town is Kasane in Northern Botswana and the Victoria Falls are only some 80 kilometers downstream. The Lodge is a member of the Hotel Association of Namibia. It also has its own airstrip on the island with customs and immigration facilities, ensuring that your stay starts off with the convenience and good service that will typify your visit.

ICHINGO is a luxury tented lodge accommodating a maximum of sixteen guests in large twin bedded Meru tents, each with cupboards, tables, electric lights etc, plus its own private thatched en suite bathroom and balcony.

All tents overlook the river with the main lodge buildings being built over the river and consisting of a lounge and bar with a separate dining room, all under thatch and situated under large shady trees. Ichingo is a luxury African Lodge providing the 'All Africa' experience in one of the world's finest wetland areas with spectacular game and bird viewing, and the opportunity to land a mighty Tigerfish. There is a wide range of activities available at Ichingo. Whether you love nature, adventure, or simply relaxing in tranquil bush surroundings; you will find something to suit your preferences. From game viewing, fishing, mekoro excursions, white water canoeing, guided walks and bird watching, Ichingo has it all!
