

Lake Baringo Club

Lake Baringo club is a neat compact hotel on the lake shore. The architecture has a Spanish air about it and the garden and the grounds are unmistakably African, but laid out with English air. There is a very welcoming atmosphere the staff are friendly and the food is excellent. Its intimate, cozy nature make Lake baringo club ideal for a get away for the conferences or a weekend away from Nairobi and its only a five hour drive from the capital on tarmac.

Lake Baringo Club offers luxurious family suites, pool wing rooms, and Lake Wing rooms. Rooms are cool and comfortable with a central overheat fan, mosquito nets around the bends and a decent shower. The first thing you find in your room is a newsletter with details of what's nesting where in the hotel grounds. The habits, lives and domestic squabbles of the residents in the trees are discussed in detail. Even if you are not particularly keen on birds you can't ignore them.

Above all Baringo means birds, birds and more birds. Over 460 species have been recorded here so it's no surprise that Lake Baringo is A Mecca for bird watchers and a highlight of the ornithology circuit of East Africa. A resident ornithologist leads bird walks before breakfast and in the evening. You can buy a checklist of the birds of Lake Baringo identify the trees with a print guide and read a daily log of species seen in the grounds which often extends to four pages. Whatever you do at Baringo don't miss the bird boat trip .From our motorized dugout, complete with sunshade you a have a marvelous view of the Laikipia escarpment and the Tugen hills. Also, you might meet a solo Njemps fisherman balanced on the precarious looking one man raft made of Ambatch ,similar to balsa wood .Your boat man might borrow a fish and then whistle up a fish eagle from the top of a distance tree.
