

Chapungu Tented Camp Thornybush Game Reserve

Chapungu Camp's unmatched hospitality and superb cuisine have earned them praise from visitors who return again and again. The elevated deck overlooks a granite pool set amongst magnificent trees. From here guests can relax and enjoy scenic views as well as an active water hole in close proximity.

Authentically furnished in colonial splendour, handpicked pieces fill the lodge and its 5 air-conditioned en-suite tents, enhancing the ambience and comforts typical of a bygone era.

At Chapungu Camp the romantic and warm ambience of this charming lodge is captured in authentic African bushveld style with thatched roofs, wide cool verandahs, air-conditioned en-suite rooms, accommodates a maximum of ten guests in five en-suite rooms and it's built in African bushveld style with thatched roofs.

Overview of Chapungu Camp:

Chapungu Camp is located within the Thornybush Big Five Game Reserve in the heart of the Lowveld and is set in the undisturbed region of Africa, the world famous Kruger National Park. Chapungu Camp accommodates a maximum of ten guests in five en-suite rooms. The rooms overlook a granite pool set amongst magnificent trees. The beatings of drums summon you to a delicious five-course banquet complemented by fine South African wines. The water hole at Chapungu Camp is a major attraction with plenty of animals coming down for a drink.

At this little gem in africa you are guaranteed to see some of Africa's finest wildlife and most probably all of the Big Five, depending on the length of your stay. Chapungu Camp is set in the undisturbed region of Africa, the world famous Kruger National Park, within the thornybush in the heart of the Lowveld with ultimate wildlife experience.

