

Ilyria House, Pretoria

This magnificent colonial manor with sweeping views across the treetops of the historical Jacaranda City is set in tranquil gardens abundant with birdlife. Ilyria is often referred to as a 'little paradise'.

Upon entering the ornate wrought iron gates, an ambience of romance and opulence unfolds, making Ilyria House a secret retreat of royalty, heads of state and celebrities. Unrivalled personalized service, exclusivity and luxury are assured at this intimate haven. It comes as no surprise that Ilyria House has become a destination in its own right and a unique colonial African experience highly appreciated by the discerning traveler.

Fine antiques, 17th century tapestries, exquisite cuisine and soft classical music emphasize why Ilyria is a sought-after oasis of tranquility, refined beauty. Charming decorated individual suites and an excellent chef in the dining room make this a memorable stay.

Services rendered by your personal butler, include historical tours, sports activities, country picnics and transfers to attractions throughout the city and surrounding areas. Guests may enjoy beauty treatments in the magical wellness facility in the garden or in the privacy of their rooms.
