

Kensington Place

Nestled on the foothills of Table Mountain, Kensington Place offers the discerning international traveler the ideal base from which to explore the Mother City while also being able to enjoy and appreciate fine cuisine, contemporary design and breathtaking views of the city, harbor and mountain.

The lush quiet gardens surrounding this property are characteristic of the prestigious residential area in which Kensington Place is situated and the peace and tranquility inspire a sense of wellbeing and comfort. The sparkling intimate pool set on a stunning wooden deck will enhance the experience.

This luxurious and highly acclaimed boutique hotel has eight individually decorated rooms which boast marble bathrooms, private terraces and unsurpassable quality of amenities, linen and towels. The interiors are an unmistakable blend of African chic and contemporary styles with deluxe fabrics and eclectic finishes throughout. The featuring of Kensington Place in numerous international design and décor magazines attest to its recognition as a world class boutique hotel.

All rooms are equipped with satellite T.V, DVD players, air-conditioning and digital safes making a stay at Kensington Place fun and funky. There is also complimentary internet access on an ADSL line and gym membership for guests during there stay. The well-trained, friendly and service driven staff ensures that the guest experience is unforgettable.

A stay at Kensington Place offers intimacy and exclusivity while retaining privacy.

