Our team's utter dedication and pure passion to pleasing each guest according to his or her needs is prevalent in every aspect of the lodge. The main deck is perfect for whiling the day away with a pair of binoculars in the glorious sun or under the shade of an umbrella. When the heat is on, cool down on the open-air verandah with an ice cold drink in hand, or sink below the refreshing surface of our swimming pool.

Each of the eight luxurious glass-fronted suites, complete with their own sundeck and rock plunge pool offer superb views of the African bushveld beyond. The suites are generously spacious and immense in stature with air-conditioning and overhead fans. The breathtaking romantic bathrooms include double indoor and outdoor showers, which open to a glorious view of the passing cavalcade below. The comfortable beds are complete with beautiful crisp percale cotton linen, down duvets and pillows, and gracious mosquito netting. An inviting lounge with breathtaking views over the bush creates the ideal setting to relax with a book in the comfort of your air-conditioned suite, a wonderful reprieve from the heat of the midday sun.

Our treatment sala and gym have proved very popular among our guests. What better way to work up a sweat on our various gym machines, while looking over the bush below, or enjoying an array of massage treatments in our glass-fronted sala, which has a spectacular vantage point off the main pool deck offering absolute privacy and spectacular views.
