

Palace of the Lost City

The Palace of the Lost City is an opulent extravaganza of architectural and decorative prowess and is easily one of the world's most imaginatively created hotels. Within the Palace of the Lost City complex, a fairytale palace awaits you. Built with passion and dedication, the interior of The Palace features mosaics, frescoes and hand-painted ceilings, which all pay tribute to the art and nature of South Africa. The Palace of the Lost City lies deep in the heart of the North West Province bordering the Pilanesberg National Park, just 1.5 hours north of Johannesburg, in South Africa.

There are no less than 338 rooms including four suites. The King, Royal, African and Desert Suites are available on request. The King Suite at The Palace of the Lost City is the epitome of regal luxury with hand-carved walls, frescoed ceilings and hundreds of custom-designed items.

All luxury suites at The Palace of the Lost City feature a sauna and jacuzzi bath, while the Africa Suite even has an additional jacuzzi on the balcony. Staying here affords you the opportunity to enjoy life in your very own Palace! All standard rooms at The Palace of the Lost City, South Africa consist of an entrance foyer, en-suite bathroom, lounge and seating area, amenities include air-conditioning, TV, radio, safe, telephone, minibar and butler station.

The Palace of the Lost City at Sun City is set like a gem as the centerpiece of the Sun City resort, a world of entertainment and leisure with every facility imaginable. Days may be passed relaxing by the Grand Pool, indulging in five-star pampering at The Gary Player Health Spa or exploring the attractions of the Valley of Waves. Nightfall might find you in one of the many bars or fine restaurants, or dance the night away at Silhouette Nightclub.

Two magnificent golf courses provide challenges for keen golfers at every level of skill. You may encounter Africa's big five in the neighboring Pilanesberg Nature Reserve, ruggedly beautiful and malaria free, and fall asleep to the lion's distant roar.
