

Desroches Island

Desroches Island forms part of the Amirantes Archipelago, regarded as some of the most pristine and mystique in the world. Located 230 kilometers south-west of Mahe, it is the gateway to the outer and Amirantes Islands, and adjoins a number of virgin islands, which add to the unique travel adventures and activities that can be enjoyed from the idyllic paradise.

It is ideally linked to the core infrastructure network of Mahe by daily schedule flights and private charter flights, or a leisurely sail for those who prefer to take their time. With only one Hotel and Villas, concealed beneath the shade of coconut palms, Desroches is one of the most beautiful islands in the world, offering a myriad of activities that unite nature and man boasting perfect weather. It has 14 km of immaculate beaches, crystal blue waters and is protected on its south-east side by its own coral reef. Blessed with one of the world's healthiest climates, the balmy days and nights create the feeling of an endless summer, while the untouched natural splendor of the surroundings lull one to relax, despite all the thrilling adventures on offer.

Around the central area, dining room, swimming pool and spa, the 2D luxuriously spacious air-conditioned suites, are ideally built along the west-facing beach. The suites are set amongst tropical gardens, palm trees amid green lawns, just a few meters from the beach. Each air-conditions suite offers privacy with its own veranda, lounge area, flat screen TV and mini bar. The well designed bathrooms have double basins, a covered outdoor bath, an outdoor shower and a separate toilet and bidet. Adding to your exclusive experience, the hotel offers in-room dining on your patio or private dinners on the beach where the waves lap gently against the soft white sand. Also, villas and the presidential villa are available.

Le Velautier Restaurant serves a variety of menus; international cuisine, seafood barbeques, and buffets all complemented with an extensive international wine list. In addition to the restaurant, private dining arrangements can be made to enjoy your meal on the terrace of your room or villa, on a special spot on the beach or alongside the pool. Activities are endless; with over 13km of unspoilt beaches and forested hinterland, Desroches is ideal for nature watching and includes an ancient tortoise colony, nesting turtles, and an array of marine life including magnificent whales and soaring sailfish. Cycling tours of the island's jungle (on your own personal bike), or explorations to the northern point and deserted beaches allow you to lose yourself in this island paradise. For a more relaxing option, enjoy sensuous spa treatments or catered picnics either on the beach or in the jungle, and private sunset cruises which offer stunning views of the island from a different angle.
