

Lugogo Sun

At the end of a short journey, awaits Africa's jewel – the kingdom of Swaziland, one of the three remaining monarchies in Africa. His Majesty King Mswati III invites you to experience the majestic wonder of his country & the hospitality of all his people. One of Africa's best kept secrets, Swaziland's mountainous grandeur, lush forests, and the fertile valleys of the African lowveld will take you back to the days before time existed. The Royal Swazi Spa, Ezulwini Sun and Lugogo Sun are situated in the lush Royal Swazi Spa Valley. Only a 5 minute courtesy shuttle drive from one another, they offer you the chance to enjoy all the superb facilities and activities on offer.

The Lugogo Sun has 202 rooms, catering for a variety of requirements, including sports groups, conference delegates and families. The rooms consist of 199 twin rooms and 3 mini suites. All the rooms, excepting the suites, have two double beds with en-suite bathroom and shower, and are equipped with television, radio, hairdryers, tea and coffee facilities and telephones. A number of rooms are inter-leading.

Beyond the classic pursuits like tennis, volleyball, lawn bowls, squash and snooker, there are a number of fascinating historical, cultural, wildlife and adventure trails to explore at your leisure. From a magnificent 18-hole golf course, a tranquil spa, a vibrant casino and a variety of fantastic restaurants to the fully supervised children's club, Kamp Kwena, what more could you ask for? The Ilanga Restaurant is a delightful breakfast and dinner is served daily, with regular theme evenings being a main attraction. A magnificent buffet lunch is served on Sundays from 12h50 -15h00 with live entertainment. From Mondays to Saturdays a great pub lunch is available in the Sportsman's Bar. The Conference Room is a private, modern room situated on the ground floor, with seating capacity for up to 50 delegates. An ideal venue for meetings, private breakfasts, lunches dinner and cocktail parties. Also, the Sportsman's Bar is situated just off the main foyer, this sports themed bar is ideal for refreshments any time of the day. Televisions are perfectly located for all-round viewing of your favorite sports event. Wednesday night is "Pub Night" with live entertainment and competitions. Open daily from 08h00 to midnight.