

Ngorongoro Sopa

Perched on the rim of the collapsed volcano, the Ngorongoro Crater, a world heritage site, often referred to as the eighth wonder of the world. It has the most magnificent views over the crater floor, which is home to vast herds of buffalo, wildebeest, zebra, the rare and endangered black rhino, elephant, cheetah, leopard, lion and herds of gazelle. On arrival you will be welcomed with a hot towel and a glass of refreshing juice, much needed after the long journey. From the reception area you will see the breathtaking view of the crater. The lobby is very spacious, has a high ceiling and a glass dome. Tea and Coffee are freely available to our guests in the coffee bar area. The lower lobby has large glass doors, which open onto the verandah, with a view of the pool. Here you can enjoy cocktails, while watching the most spectacular view of the sunset anywhere on the Crater rim.

All of the 91 double bedrooms are very spacious, each with two queen sized beds and a separate dressing area. Each room has a glass fronted verandah, where you may enjoy a private view of the Crater. The lodge has 6 single rooms, all of which have a queen sized bed and glass fronted sliding doors.

The restaurant has a high roof and large glass windows to view the crater. From the inside the ceiling resembles the inside of an umbrella. The menus offer good choice and at dinner you will have the opportunity to try a traditional African dish. Temperatures can drop in the evening and the bar area offers a cozy environment, with real fires and comfortable seating to enjoy a pre-dinner or bedtime drink. The bar offers a selection of drinks, cocktails, wines and liqueur coffee. Ngorongoro Sopa has the only swimming pool on the rim of the crater. Those looking to relax can lounge beside the pool, whilst enjoying a cooling drink. The Internet Café is a recent addition to the lodge, this offers you the chance to be in touch with loved ones at home or simply download those stunning pictures from the Crater. Also, there is a gift shop, a baby-sitting service, and a laundry service.
