

Arusha Hotel

The Arusha Hotel has been Arusha's centerpiece since 1894. Home to those traveling between the Cape and Cairo... and further afield in these modern times, its lengthy and vivid history stands as true today as it was over 100 years ago. Inside the highest-quality rooms, services and cuisine all come in surroundings that reflect its history, sophistication and charm. Outside the original lush and extensive tropical gardens give the hotel a calm relaxing feel – an oasis in the center of Arusha town. After an extensive renovation and refurbishment program, The Arusha Hotel (formerly The New Arusha Hotel) is now the leading and best loved hotel in Arusha town, making it the natural choice for visitors to Arusha, be it for business or adventure.

The Arusha Hotel boasts three types of room style: Standard, Executive, and Suite, all of which are en-suite with all the modern amenities to ensure superior comfort and luxury. Choose the view from your room: the majestic and impressive Mount Meru, the swaying trees of the sweeping gardens or the inviting turquoise pool. Our room is your personal retreat, designed to ensure complete comfort and privacy whilst still providing the facilities required by today's traveler.

There is a variety of dining opportunities to choose from at the Arusha hotel. Overlooking the gardens, the Parachichi Restaurant is the perfect place for breakfast, lunch or dinner and with the sublime climate, the outdoor terrace offers a tranquil setting. Our extensive a la carte menu and wine list is available in the evenings, boasting both European and Asian cuisine. Open from morning until late the Hatari Tavern was named after the famous 1960 safari film epic 'Hatari', and particularly as our bar was the chosen watering hole of its leading man, John Wayne (or 'Duke' as he was known to his friends). A relaxing and chilled bar perfect for cocktails at sundown, coffee over lunch or after dinner cognacs with an all day menu offering light snacks and small meals. The Lounge, know as 'The most well-known meeting place in Arusha'. With high back chairs and leather sofas the lounge is frequented by residents of Arusha, as well as visitors enjoying coffee and chat throughout the day and evening. Located next to the swimming pool the Bustani Bar serves drinks, light snacks and meals throughout the day ensuring our guests do not have to interrupt their leisure time. A full in-room dining menu is also available 24 hours a day offering a wide selection of dishes.
