

Taj Pamodzi

Set amidst tropical gardens in the heart of Lusaka's business and government district, this luxurious hotel provides spacious comfort and modern amenities. Conveniently located just 22 km from the airport and 5 km from the city centre, you won't find a more comprehensive range of services available in Zambia. The Taj Pamodzi hotel, in the centre of Lusaka, is a good option for those who need to connect onto the British Airways early morning flight back to London. It's a large, slightly impersonal hotel, with comfortable en-suite, air-conditioned rooms, and a selection of restaurants. As the Taj group of hotels originated in India, you'll always find a great curry option for your evening meal. There is a separate bar (often complete with a live pianist) and a large glossy atrium with sofas and easy chairs.

Comfortable and stylish, all guest rooms at Taj Pamodzi are recently renovated and offer modern comforts and warm, hospitable service. All 192 air-conditioned guestrooms feature modern decor in pastel shades and extend to balconies with pool or countryside views. Bathrooms are complete with complimentary toiletries, bathrobes, slippers and hair dryers. A step up from the normal Superior rooms, Executive Rooms are well equipped to meet the needs of the business traveler and outfitted with cherry wood furniture, as well as a specially designed reading desk. Deluxe Rooms include all the above guest amenities as well as access to the executive lounge. Deluxe Suites let you experience lavish comfort with an exclusive sitting room, dining area, and a spacious work area, as well as four-fixture bathroom with separate shower cubicle and Jacuzzi tub. Lastly, The Presidential Suite includes a Jacuzzi in the balcony of the suite, offering a panoramic view of the city.

From casual, all-day eateries to formal, fine dining, guests can look forward to a wide selection of delectable dishes and refreshing drinks. At Taj, we offer a distinctive dining experience, one that explores the nuances of the finest Indian and international cuisines, serving traditional and contemporary favorites. The Jacaranda Coffee shop is an all-day dining eatery providing an air of casual elegance. The Marula Bar has handsome, warm décor making it the perfect bar to enjoy exotic international cocktails and drinks. A plethora of fun and relaxation awaits you. Taj offers a 24 hour fitness center, a shopping arcade including jewelry shops and souvenir shops, a swimming pool, Squash courts, spa, golf course, and lawn tennis.
