

Chiawa Camp

Resting peacefully on the river bank, in a grove of mahogany and acacia trees, Chiawa Camp is constructed essentially of natural materials, and designed to ensure its idyllic setting can be fully appreciated.

A must for any visit to Zambia the superb accommodation boasts magnificent game viewing and scenery with a large variety of activities complemented by modern infrastructure and an attentive, professional staff.

16 guests can be accommodated in 8 well-appointed safari tents, each on a raised timber deck with private veranda. Each safari tent is under thatch, has en-suite facilities with hot & cold running water, twin or double beds, insect screens and solar powered lighting. Access paths to the tents run through a grove of Mahogany trees behind them, maximizing privacy.

The honeymoon suite has a beautiful private view of the Zambezi, the escarpment and the Chiawa River bed. The tent is light and spacious and the en-suite facilities including a Victorian bath, his and hers wash basins and a shower for two all in wood and brass. The spacious lounge and bar area has an observation platform built into its roof, providing one of the best views in the valley. The dining area also looks out onto the river providing unrivaled views of the animals which regularly come to drink and feed near the lodge.

Enjoy barbeques under the stars on the al-fresco dining veranda, while your hosts oversee your comfort and the preparation of Chiawa's renowned cuisine. After dinner, retire to the campfire and enjoy a cocktail or two while taking in the sounds and magic of the African night.
