

Garden Court Sandton City

In the heart of fashionable Sandton, the exclusive residential and business area north of Johannesburg is Southern Sun Groups Garden Court Sandton City Hotel. Whether you've come to the city to work or play, you can spend time relaxing in the beautiful gardens with outdoor pool. It is conveniently located only 25 km (15.5 miles) from Johannesburg International Airport.

The Garden Court Sandton City Hotel is within close walking distance to Sandton City, Nelson Mandela Square (formerly Sandton Square) and Village Walk, South Africa's exclusive shopping complexes with their vast selection of restaurants, designer boutiques, entertainment centres, banks and restaurants. The Sandton International Convention Centre, South Africa's biggest and best conference venue is also nearby, and the hotel is close to the magnificent Montecasino Gaming, Leisure and Entertainment Complex.

Warm and cozy rooms offer new bathrooms, internet workstations. A full breakfast is included and you will be greeted with bright smiles from the staff. There is wireless internet in public areas available.

The hotel is set in an attractive, landscaped garden with an outdoor swimming pool, and provides an informal atmosphere, which is combined with efficient service and great value for money. The breakfast room serves a light or full buffet breakfast, and McGinty's Irish Pub and Grill is the perfect spot for a pub lunch or dinner.

A Southern Sun Group hotel.