

Le Quartier Francais

The Auberge du Quartier Français is a small, privately owned inn situated in the French Huguenot valley of Franschhoek, in the Cape Winelands . “We like to keep things simple, but exceptional and we pride ourselves on our reputation for warm, world class service ... and the little touches that make the difference.” The atmosphere at our auberge is peaceful and serene. Emphasis is on ultimate luxury and romantic charm, combined with the priceless gift of privacy.

Fifteen eloquently decorated en-suite bedrooms open onto the rose filled central courtyard and swimming pool. In addition two unashamedly luxurious suites offer spacious lounges, private pools and complimentary full bars. And if you feel like a little pampering, our in-room beauty therapy offers the ultimate experience in relaxation.

The Quartier Français is legendary for its innovative cuisine. With an endless list of awards and renowned executive chef Margot Janse at the helm, it is a superbly rated restaurant. The cuisine is contemporary and creative, using seasonal local ingredients. Guests have a variety of dining options: At the Auberge there are The Tasting Room and iCi. Further afield in the village are Delicious and Bread & Wine Vineyard Restaurant which is situated at our family wine estate Môreson.

Less than an hours driver from Cape Town and the international airport this is an ideal haven from which to explore the Vineyards, Galleries, country shops and other interesting towns of the Western ape. Golf courses and other facilities are within easy reach.
