

Tanda Tula

Tanda Tula meaning 'to love the quiet', is situated amidst 20 000 acres of bushveld adjacent to the Kruger National Park in the Timbavati Game Reserve. The Safari Camp is set among stately trees such as Lead Wood, Knob Thorn and the Jackalberry. Accommodation is in 12 Luxurious East African fashioned tents, accommodating a total of 16 people in camp. All tents have en-suite bathrooms and private wooden decks, situated in lush riverine high above a spectacular riverbed. Enjoy morning and night drives accompanied by professional rangers and trackers

12 Luxurious East African style tents (16-Bedded) with private timber decks overlook the dry riverbed.
En suite bathrooms - Victorian baths with outside showers

- Standing Fans and mosquito netting in Tanda Tula Safari Camp's rooms
- Thatched lounge, open-air dining areas, curio shop and swimming pool
- Maximum of 24 guests - personal attention

Each tented suite has its own private timber decks overlooking the riverbed. If you are seeking exclusivity, you may be interested in the Tandala thatched suite with its own pool, personal cook, ranger and game-viewing vehicle. For the more adventurous, sleep outs can be arranged at the hide overlooking the waterhole at Tanda Tula Safari Camp.