

The Grace Hotel

The Grace is an ideal choice for guests seeking a sophisticated city hotel with the highest levels of service and luxury as well as that of personal charm found only in small establishments. Set in the heart of stylish Rosebank, a secure, leafy suburb that is cosmopolitan and rich in eclectic restaurants, shopping, cinemas and culture.

With only 73 bedrooms, The Grace in Rosebank is ideally positioned to provide personal, unobtrusive hospitality. Our classical standards of excellence date back to an era of gracious living and dedication to detail. The Grace has generously proportioned double or twin rooms each with adjoining bathroom and separate shower. French casement windows afford views to the north, south, east and west. Guest accommodation starts on the fifth floor. Suites Each with a spacious bedroom, bathroom and separate shower, separate lounge and guest toilet, separate lounge suitable for small business meetings and private dining for up to six people

Located 45 minutes from the Johannesburg International airport, it is ten minutes from the central business district of Sandton and within walking distance of restaurants, department stores & specialty shops, Cinemas, Banking and recreational facilities. There is a covered, elevated walkway which links the hotel to The Mall of Rosebank.

