

The Hilltop House – Windhoek

As you might expect from the name Hilltop House it has a commanding view over Windhoek. Set in a quiet area of town this guest house has all the facilities you might expect from a large hotel, yet maintains the personal touch which makes you feel so welcome and at home, this is the perfect place if you want to relax while staying in Windhoek.

Hilltop offers up-market accommodation, with all the perks of larger hotels. Each room has wonderful views of the Klein Windhoek valley, extending to the mountains in the distance.

The luxury rooms at Hilltop House are decorated in colonial style, and all have large en-suite bathrooms with complimentary environmentally friendly toiletries. The rooms all have air conditioning, offering relief from the Namibian heat, a mini-bar, and TV.

Enjoy a delicious breakfast in the sanctity of your own room, delivered on a tray at any time requested, with a complimentary local newspaper. Or, perhaps take breakfast outside on the Oregon pine deck or by the sparkling pool. The house is situated only a few minutes drive from town, where local craft markets await you. Many restaurants are also located nearby, providing a choice of cuisine on your doorstep. For those who would prefer to dine in, light meals are available from The Hilltop House kitchen.
