

Tortillis

Arriving at this award-winning eco-tourism lodge in Amboseli National Park one cannot help but appreciate the contrast and enormity of Africa. Dwarfed by the majestic snow-capped peak of Mt. Kilimanjaro, Tortillis camp nestles in a verdant acacia grove. Expect warm dry days, cool nights and low humidity as you take game drives in 4 wheel drive land rovers, guided nature walks, enjoy bush breakfasts and hilltop sundowners. There's even a gift shop for your shopping pleasure.

Seventeen spacious tents with raised wooden decks are shaded with makuti (thatched) roofs and private ensuite bathrooms. Each tent leads from a bedroom with expansive king-size or generous twin beds, through a dressing area into modern bathrooms with pressured hot showers and flush toilets. The camp won the British Airways regional award for ecotourism and has earned an international reputation for its commitment to the environment with its rustic simplicity, unobtrusive design and attention to comfort without compromising the ecosystem.

The food is part of the charm: North Italian traditional recipes from the owner's family cookbook, complimented by delicious salads and herbs grown in the camp's own garden.

Enjoy varied game viewing and spend time following the matriarchal elephant herds from the luxury of open sided safari Land Rovers; or walk with a trained Maasai guide, sip sundowners on top of Kitirua hill as the sun sets coloring the snows of Kilimanjaro pink, bush breakfasts out on the plains or a visit to one of the Maasai manyattas (villages) to meet the Maasai women, watch the Morans (young warriors) dance and experience their age-old existence.
