

Welgelgen Guest House

Situated in Gardens, an old and established suburb of Cape Town at the foot of Table Mountain, Welgelegen comprises two beautiful turn of the century houses, lovingly renovated and decorated to reflect the uncompromising commitment to style of their owner and your hostess, Lanie van Reenen-

Rooms are individually designed and decorated and include either shower or bath and vary in size. Some have balconies, patios or special views of the courtyard or the Mountain. There are a total of 13 rooms.

Public rooms and Lounges are spacious, stylish, contemporary and very eclectic. Relax in the lounge, play a game of chess or read by the fire with a glass of port. Find you place in the sunibyt the plunge pool in the tranquil and secluded courtyard. You won't want to do anything else!!

The name Welgelegen means "well located" in Dutch and as its name suggests is perfectly situated at the heart of Cape Town's City Bowl. On nearby Kloof streets, two minutes away you will find many of Cape Town's finest restaurants and pubs, plenty to occupy your evenings. Also within easy walking distance is the Company Gardens, National Museum & Art Gallery, Parliament Buildings and Greenmarket Square at the city centre.
