North Island Villas

Each of the 11 villas has been creatively crafted from wood, stone and glass with ylang-ylang roofing.

A team of craftsmen from Africa, Zanzibar and the Seychelles have created a fusion of cultures and architectural styles to produce a "Robinson Crusoe styled luxury paradise" unlike any other.

Each villa is self-contained, with a master bedroom, a writing and change area, an en-suite bathroom with inside and outside showers, small kitchen, a second room which can be used as a bedroom for the family or as a study with all connectivity required for on-line communications, a private plunge pool, air-conditioning, fans.

The butler service will be totally personalised to suit guest requirements. Meals will be prepared on request from the kitchen and served either in the lounge, pool deck or in the bedroom.
